

1. Where are you from?

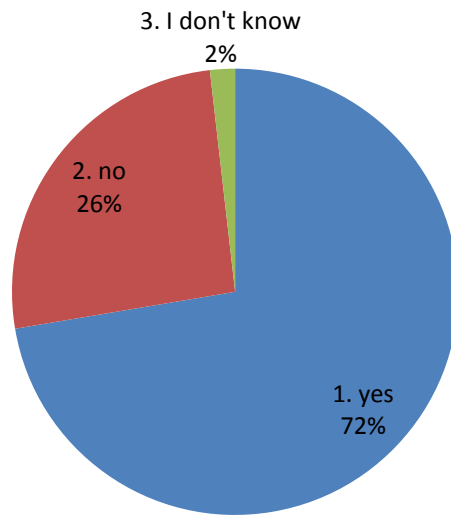

2. What is your sex?

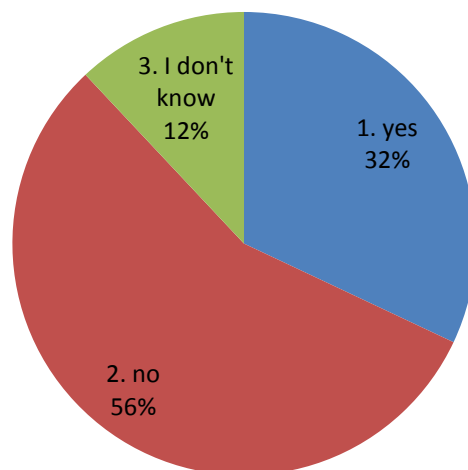

3. Have you ever heard about the Declaration of Human Rights?

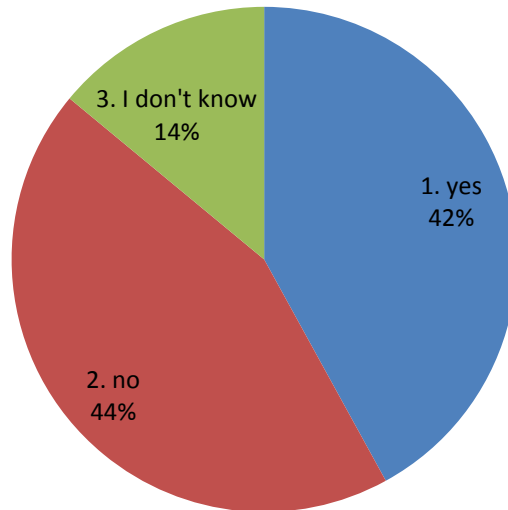

4. Does your government respect individual liberties?

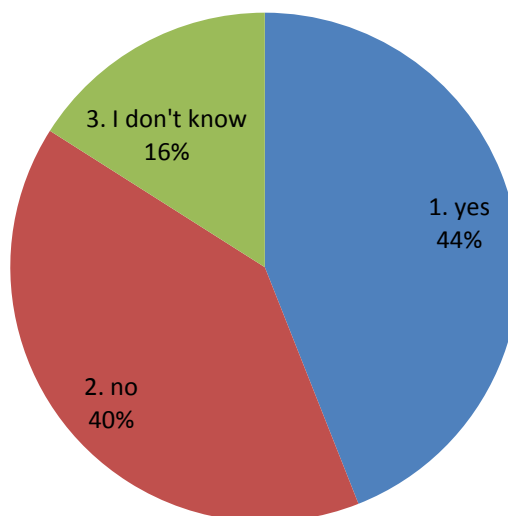

5. Are equal rights extended to people regardless of skin colour in your country?

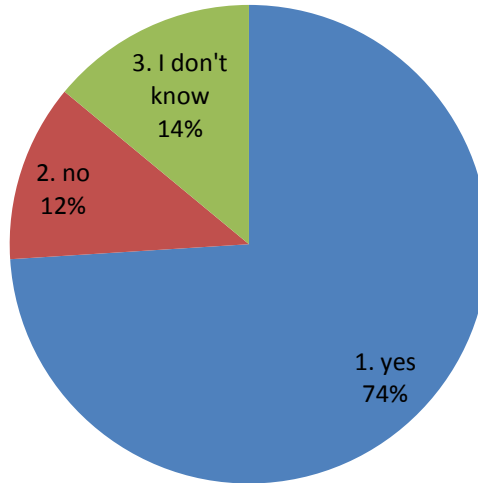

6. Are equal rights extended to people regardless of their religion?

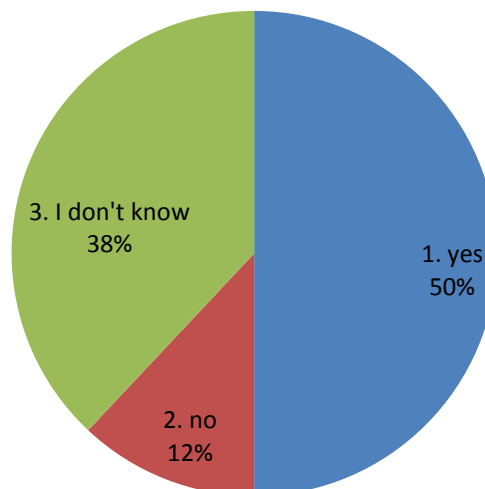

7. Is everyone equally protected by law in your country?

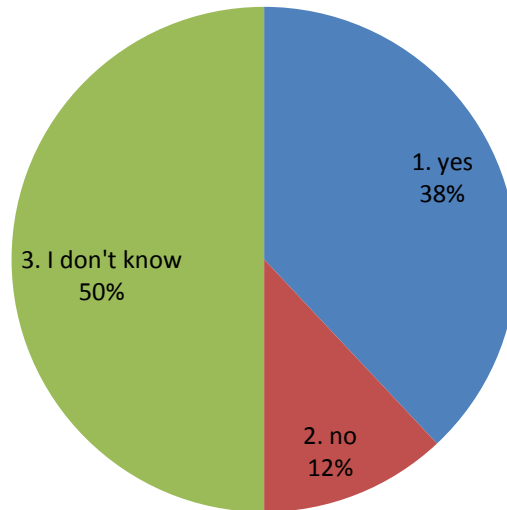

8. Is freedom guaranteed for everyone in your country?

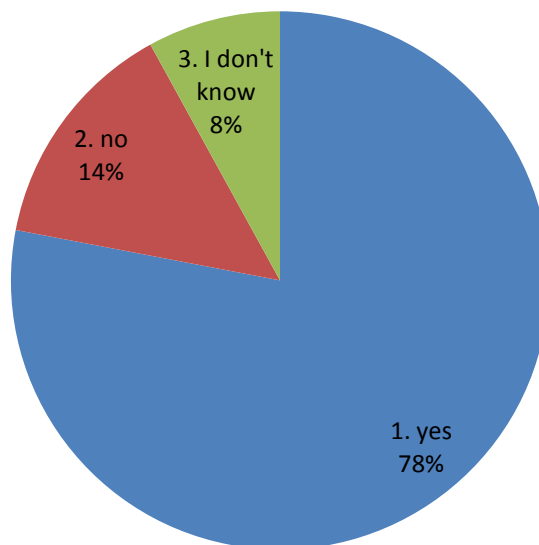

9. Does the legal system in your country provide effective remedies for people whose constitutional rights have been violated?

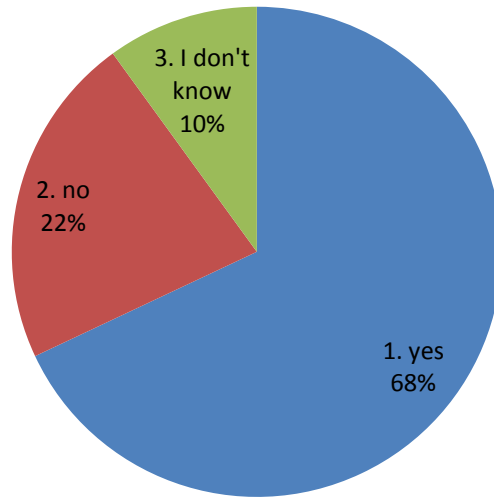

10. In your country can anyone seek asylum to avoid persecution from another country?

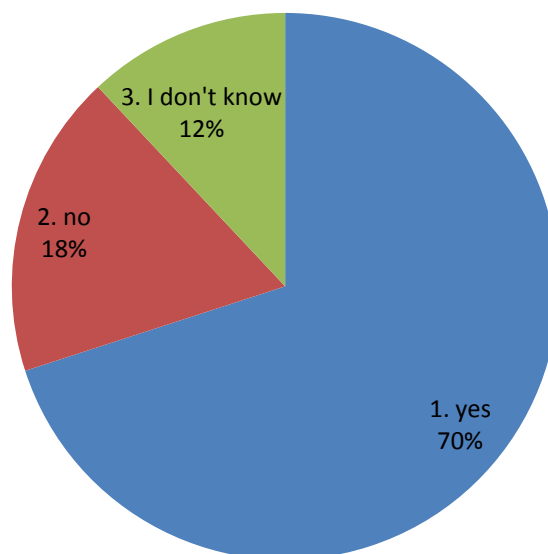

11. Have you ever heard about activities or organizations (national or international) having to do with human rights?

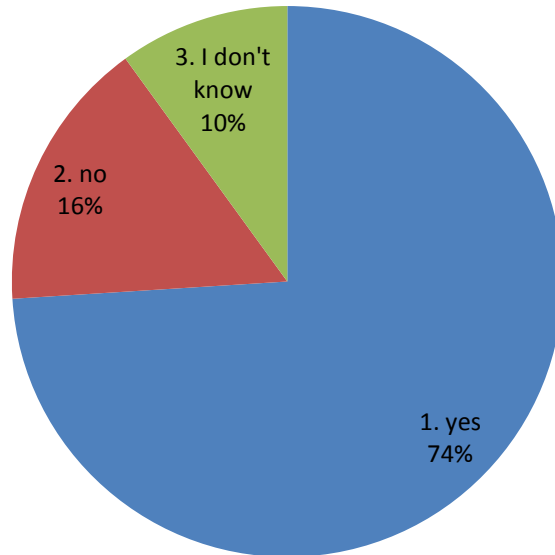

12. Do you know where to go if your rights have been violated?

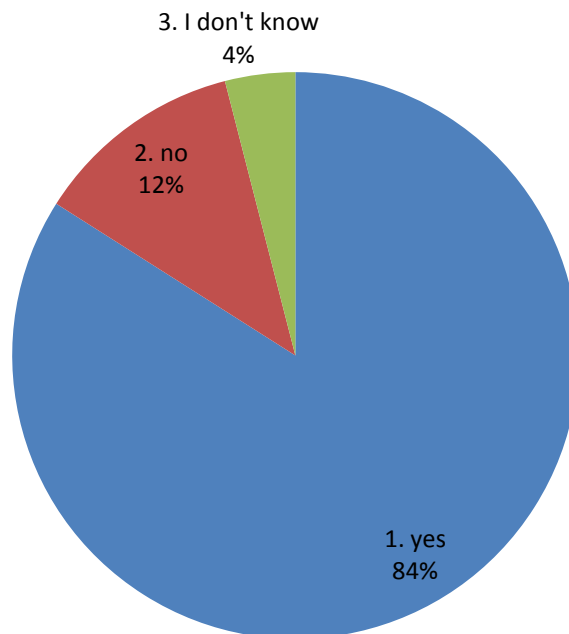

13. Does everyone have the right to citizenship in your country?

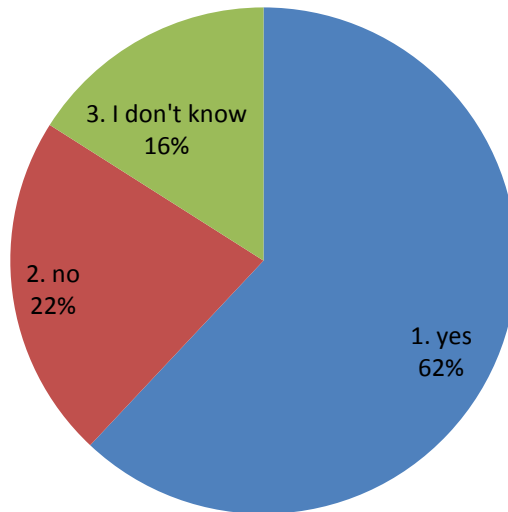

14. In your country is everyone guaranteed the freedom of thought and conscience?

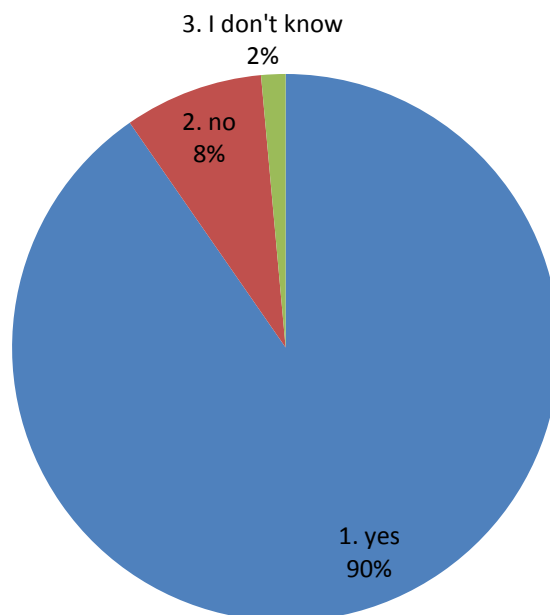

15. In your country is everyone guaranteed the freedom of religion?

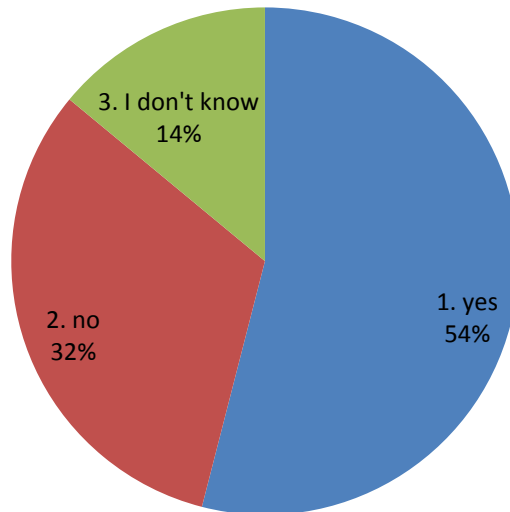

16. In your country is everyone free to form his/her own opinions and to express them publically and privately?

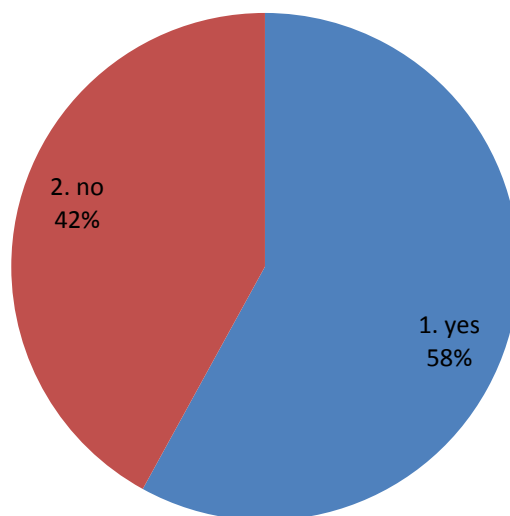

17. Is education available to everyone in your country?

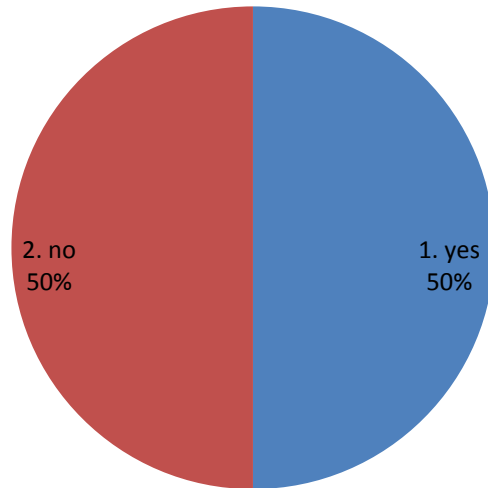

18. In your school are students discriminated because of their lifestyle, for example form of dress or friendship with certain people?

19. In your school do you have the right to express your opinion without fear of being punished?

20. Do you agree that males and females are treated equally?

21. Have you ever violated anybody's rights?

